Information From Council

The monthly Council meeting was held March 10.

- Council reviewed the February financial statements which show a year to date deficit of $4,000. It was agreed to include a more thorough finance review in this newsletter on a quarterly basis.
- The spring congregation meeting date has been set for May 1
- COVID protocols were reviewed and the following modifications have been approved:
 - Servers will continue to wear masks during communion distribution however gloves

- will be optional
- We will resume singing Lamb of God and communion hymns
- Pastor and Donna will evaluate changes to communion distribution to improve people flow when we have high attendance (anticipating Palm Sunday and Easter). We will not return to communing at the rail at this time.
- Choir masking will be at the discretion of the choir. The choir will not return to the chancel pews at this time.
- Council approved the joining of 2 new members - Ed Quirke and Scott Zimmerman.
- The next council meeting is moved to April 21st to avoid Holy Week.
